Kane County Guide to Community Services

The Kane County Guide to Community Services (www.kanecountyguide.org) is a comprehensive website listing of health and human services available throughout Kane County. In addition to allowing individual residents to search for the help they need, many schools, churches, synagogues and non-profit agencies find the online guide an easy-to-use resource to locate resources for their communities. The guide contains information for 1,170 organizations with 3,665 health & human services in our area as well as national resources. Agency profiles include contact information, websites, hours, disability access, fees, eligibility requirements, and service descriptions. Staff continuously review program information to ensure the information is accurate and current.

The Kane County Guide utilizes the Alliance of Information and Referral Systems, (AIRS) Taxonomy. AIRS is a professional association of I&R providers that seeks to improve access to services for all people through information and referral. Use of the taxonomy also provides benefits to providers, in that it automatically sorts data according to need types. Available resources include:

- Basic Needs – 209 resources
- Consumer Services – 38 resources
- Criminal Justice and Legal Services – 186 resources
- Education – 154 resources
- Environment and Public Health/Safety – 31 resources
- Health Care – 227 resources
- Income Support and Employment – 94 resources
- Individual and Family Life– 403 resources
- Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services – 220 resources

Be A Link. Pass The Link.

Calling all local governments, schools, libraries, businesses, churches, neighborhood and service organizations! Help connect Kane County residents with needed health and human services in our community through the Kane County Guide to Community Services. Please consider including the URL www.kanecountyguide.org and the Kane County Guide to Community Services logo (if possible) on a high-traffic area on your website.
